APPLESAUCE FOR THE GOOSE

Funny, isn't it, that those who clamor loudest for freedom of speech are the first to deny it to their opponents?

In the Labor Clarion of Friday, March 22, under the heading of "Youthful Indiscretion," your columnist was roasted for her stand against the McCarran amendment. (Remember, a few weeks back the column item pertaining to that subject?)

It seems that the august editorial writer for the Clarion feels that rash young student writers should not undertake to advise their fellow students and the world at large what to say to their Congressmen. But what is still much more important, such writers should not mention anything about the policy of the American Federation of Labor, particularly when they know nothing about it. The editorial writer feels that school authorities should censor the newspapers of our state institutions. He also accuses your columnist of stealing her stuff from William Randolph Hearst. The writer, terming your columnist naive, feels that she had no right to criticise the Senate, "some of the most patriotic and earnest men in public life." He raves on at length, almost two editorial columns of it.

We hadn't thought we were creating such a tempest in the teacup. At first we were flattered to learn that our little column had gone so far outside the choice circle of the college. Then as we read on we realized that the man is not one of our regular readers or he would know that your columnist is not a disciple of the man he terms a "weathervane publicist," but neither is she one who would shackle freedom of press and speech because those who write do not agree with her.

Well, at any rate, the MaCarran amendment to the President's Work Relief Bill is no more. We don't know whether it was because the Senate took our advice or because the pressure brought to bear by constituents who took our advice and wrote was too much for the outlaw senators, but we do know that this vicious amendment was killed. May we also say that your columnist does know a great deal about American Federation of Labor policy, and that if critics will subscribe to the Golden Gater they probably learn why the writer of "On the Horizon" is accused of being a partisan of labor and even sometimes a "radical."

DUST STORMS

Dust storms are sweeping the Middle West from Montana to Texas. Hundreds of families are losing all they possess. Live stock are starving because their food has been covered by thick layers of dust. The meager crops are ruined. The same area that suffered from the drouth is now in the throes of terrific dust storms which choke and blind man and beast. Years of misuse are bearing fruit in destruction. Much of this land is worthless and will be for some one hundred years to come. Here is a worthwhile project for our CCC boys. Reforestation of these virtual waste lands would benefit coming generations. Perhaps some of the families dependent upon the produce of this devitalized soil should be moved to some of the productive lands that now lie idle. It is fortunate that we have an administration that is looking to the future. This foresight will probably keep us from sharing China's fate. Reforestation will keep the processes of erosion from getting headway and will also store water. Future generations have something to which to look forward.

A Capella Concert Second Performance Of Spring Festival

Choir Singers, Under Freeburg, to Give Program of Religious, Sentimental, Novel Numbers—Frederic Burk Scene of Musical Series

String Quartet Will Render Selections on Same Program—Full Festival Series Includes Carolers, Orchestra and Band

By CLARICE DECHENT

Second in the series of concerts of the Spring Music Festival, the A Capella Choir will present its program next Wednesday evening, April 10. The concert, given in conjunction with the string quartet, will be given at Frederic Burk auditorium. Admission will be invitational.

Two groups of numbers will be offered by this musical organization. The first of these will be religious in nature, the second will consist of more novel numbers, and this last will be a mixture of religious and sentimental songs. The majority of the songs have not been rendered at any of the State A Capella programs as yet, but a few favorites are scheduled.

Religious Offering First

In the first group, the following will be heard: Jacob Arcadelt's Hear My Prayer, O God. The words of this beautiful anthem are taken from the Psalms. Due to its popularity, this is one of the repeat numbers on the program. In the same group will be offered Alleluia, Lord God! (Adoramus Te) by Giovanni Pierluigi da Palestrina. As the following number of the group, the choir will sing Orlando Gibbons' anthem, O Lord, Increase My Faith. Next, The Cherubic Hymn by Alexander Gretchaninoff, another repeat by popular demand, will be rendered. This hymn is from the Russian liturgy of St. John Chrysostom.

Following these first four numbers, the string quartet will favor listeners with several selections. This arrangement of alternating choir with quartet is expected to add interest and variety to the program.

Beethoven's Works Given

The choir will then reappear, this time offering numbers of a slightly different nature from the first group. The first of these will be a French Noel, arranged by Joseph Clokey, The Music of the Bells. Ludwig Van Beethoven's round To Maelzel will be next. Although this round was written as a practical joke on the inventor of the metronome, the composer used the same tune as the theme to his Eighth Symphony. The following number in this group will be The Bells of St. Michael's Tower by William Knyvett and Sir R. P. Stewart. This last is a novel number commencing with imitation of bells, and going into a lively theme expressing a story. The bell theme is noted throughout the song.

Repeat by Popular Demand

In Heaven Above, by Christiansen, will follow the bell numbers, and an arrangement of Henry Leslie and Robert Herrick's Charm Me Asleep. This song makes extensive use of chromatic progressions. The concluding number of the evening will be the one with which the choir made its greatest impression at the Christmas concern. It

Play Put On By College Players

"Mazie," the third of a series of noon-day plays to be presented during the semester, will be presented Thursday, April 4, in the Annex B2. The production is under the direction of Madeline Shiedler.

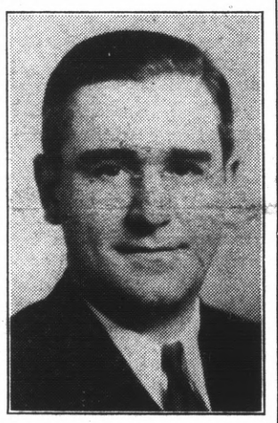
The cast has been chosen from Experimental Theater and includes the following players: Alice Baumgartner as Mazie, Bob Mason as Mazie's husband, and Dorothy Moore as Mazie's friend.

No admissions are charged at these performances as their purpose is to familiarize all State students with College Theater. Anyone who is interested is invited to attend.

Project Started

A garden project is being enthusiastically undertaken by the K. P. 4 class of Frederic Burk, where they have planted their own garden of vegetables and flowers. Dr. Roberts has contributed plants from his garden, and others have given seeds. The children have made one excursion to flower markets, and are planning another to a farm.

Head



Dr. William E. Knuth, head of the Music Dept., which is sponsoring the spring musical festival.

Date Is Announced For Men's Smoker And Entertainment

The Men's Association is giving an evening of entertainment in Frederic Burk auditorium on Wednesday evening, April 10.

This entertainment will be in the form of a smoker. Wrestling matches, skits, boxing, and a heavy operatic production are the highlight of this gigantic production. Refreshments will be served during the course of the evening. According to Walberto Valadez, chairman of the smoker, "Greatest effort has been expended by the members of the committee to make this entire production a high class affair."

Bud Decker has been given full charge of the black-outs and skits. Decker was chosen to have charge of this portion of the entertainment because of the success of his part in the entertainment during the last men's mass meeting, so first rate entertainment is assured those who attend this affair.

The central theme for the occasion is based on the Opera Carmen. To make this operatic production more interesting the scene is laid in Russia instead of in Spain. The cast decided the using of Moscow as the scene of events would give the production a more metropolitan air. The talent for the opera includes such "great" dramatic artists as Bud Decker, Rudy Rudd, and Cy Atkinson.

Student Teachers Meet at Dinners

San Francisco State students doing practice teaching in the East Bay Region have convened at a series of dinners recently. At these dinners they were able to informally discuss classroom procedures. According to reports, it has been a strong source of information and help for the students.

Miss Blanche Stirzaker, a State graduate, and a supervising teacher at Palo Alto, met with the members last Monday evening. Creative Music and English were discussed.

DuFour To Talk Before Adv. Council

Talk Is Tomorrow; Student Advisors Skate Tonight at Iceland

Clarence J. DuFour, vice-president and dean of the college, will speak to the Student Advisory Council tomorrow on "Teacher Training in Community Mindedness." Having had experience in several communities, Dean DuFour is in a position to know the value of such training. He will present what is meant by community mindedness, and why it is advisable for teachers to be trained in it.

Johnnie Goodwin, program chairman who will present Dean DuFour, said, "We are having a series of talks to make the prospective teacher conscious of the various aspects of teaching that might not be brought out in the general curriculum. Community mindedness is a thing which many teachers do not realize as necessary for a successful career.

"The meeting will be at 11 o'clock in Room 210, and is open to the student body. We expect to see a large group there. At the last general meeting of the council, Miss Clara Crumpton, East Bay supervisor of elementary schools, spoke on 'Opportunities for Leadership,' which proved very beneficial to us."

Tonight, the Student Advisory Council will hold its second skating party of the term. The group will meet at Iceland roller skating rink at 7 o'clock. The admission is only 25 cents with student body cards. Dorothy Jean White, chairman of the Advisory Council, stated that since those who went last time had so much fun, she expects a larger group this time—with just as much if not a better time. There is a signup-on the council's bulletin board for those who want to go.

Siena Club Plans Party

A benefit bridge tea will be given by the Siena Club on Saturday afternoon, April 6, at 2 o'clock. Virginia Houseman and Eleanor Lalanne, co-chairman for the affair, cordially invite all members and friends to attend the event.

Members of the committee, Grace Whitby, Hazel Sartori, Marie Louise Benson, Virginia Mattei, and Veronica Giles, will receive the guests at Siena House, 350 Buchanan street. Tickets which are 35 cents, can be procured from any member of the committee.

The house will be decorated in a spring theme. As for the bridge itself, many prizes and also original tallies are promised by the chairmen. After the games, refreshments will be served, which will conclude the evening's program.

International Club To Plan Term's Work

Program to Be Outlined; Presidents of Clubs in City Co-operate

Plans were being made today by the International Relations Club to establish contact with the international organizations of this city's high schools, according to Leona Biglovsky, chairman of the committee.

At the last meeting of the club, Dr. Roy Cave, social science professor, gave the third in a series of talks on Japan. His topic was "Japanese in California."

Japanese History Told

Dr. Cave outlined briefly the history of the Japanese in California. The Japanese, he explained, did not come until 1885, and only after the Chinese movement had ceased. These peoples were encouraged to come to California for labor purposes.

"The attitude of opposition from the labor group because of economic competition began in 1900," the doctor said. "The San Francisco Labor Council came out against the Japanese because of race prejudice and lack of understanding. Most of the opposition originated in the cities."

Opposition Aroused Again

Dr. Cave explained how the Japanese then moved to the rural districts, setting up small farms, and farming intensively. These settlements have been close to the large cities, and so they were no sooner settled than the opposition began again.

No Exclusion!

Concluding his resume of the history of the Japanese in California, the doctor pointed out that the treaty of 1911 established the fact that Japanese could only enter the United States for trade purposes. It was finally settled by an act in 1924, which set up a provision that all Japanese who were not or could not become citizens were excluded from the country.

"Our chief problem today," Cave prophesied, "is the new generation. Because they have been born here, they are citizens of this country. It is up to us to help these people adjust themselves. We should see to it that they are not excluded or segregated from our society."

State to Broadcast Over KYA; Program On Summer Session

"The Advantages of Attending Summer Session" will be the topic of Dean Mary A. Ward's address, which will be made during State's regular program over KYA next Sunday, from five to five-thirty.

Following Miss Ward's talk, Harry Meyn, music major, will tell some of the opportunities offered to the students interested in music.

Another feature of the program, carrying out Mr. Meyn's points, will be the several selections given by A Capella Choir. The Choir is composed of the cream of the State music department and is led by Mr. Roy Freeburg, instructor in music.

Soph Dance Definitely at Edgewater

Beach Club Chosen as the Site for Class Party; Music by Jimmy Davis

Edgewater Beach has been finally decided upon as the scene for the High Soph dinner dance on April 13, according to announcement from Vincent Haderle who is chairman for the event. Some doubt was entertained at first that the location would be approved and the selection was necessarily tentative. Difficulties have recently been removed, however, and the affair will be given as originally planned.

James Hamrock, High Soph president, said last Friday, "The dance will be the first State social event to be held at this particular spot." As mentioned previously, a private room for the exclusive use of Staters who attend has been secured.

During the evening the floor show which is a regular part of the Edgewater program, will be open to anyone who wishes to see it. The orchestra will be led by Jimmy Davis who is also a State student. The committee supplemented this statement with the announcement that the class was standing the cost of the music, the price of the bids and the cost of the programs in addition to donating 50 cents toward the admission for each couple. A dollar and a half will be charged class members and the fee for outsiders has been set at $2.25. According to Hamrock, bids are the most unique ever to appear at State.

Vincent Haderle announced that no liquor could be brought in from the outside as a fine of $1 will be charged for each one who does so.

The dinner which opens the affair will be served at 7:30 and the final dance, which closes the evening, is at one o'clock.

Registration News Soon

Owing to the late release of the fall program schedule, Mr. Carlos Mundt, chairman of registration, wishes to announce that only half a day will be set aside for program counseling instead of the regular counseling period. The fall 1935 program schedule will appear on Wednesday, April 24. The date for counseling is the following Monday, the 29th, as set by the registration committee.

During this half-day, freshman advisors and department advisors will be available to take care of all questions arising concerning the fall program. If this time should prove insufficient, definite appointments for further counseling may be arranged with the advisors.

Registration will be one day, Wednesday, September 4. All classes will be registered on that day.

Dear Beverly Hill-Billy:

Here's some filth for your "I'm a Liar" column, you scavenger, you. If it wasn't for your weekly insult that keeps me in cigarettes, I certainly wouldn't do this—far be it from me to grow up to be a garbage collector. Here goes!

'Tis rumored that Dr. Treutlein was using, at the first of the semester, that scatterbolt that Dean Cox calls a typewriter. In walks the Dean. "Well, boy," he screams in basso profundo, "what do you want?" The Dr. shrinks down into his collar but introduces himself. The Dean got red and redder, mumbled something about thinking that the Dr. was one of his P. E. 80 stooges and then suddenly remembered an appointment elsewhere.

Did you attend the Low Senior Party, Miss Lyings? If so, you probably know that Bill Eich got mixed up on his shades of lip rouge and received a terrible bawl-out after returning from a walk with . . . ! Well, if I was Jess Fisher I would tar-and-feather that beast. And then there was Mrs. Elliot's little girl Barbara who, after finishing the prize twirl with Bobby Robinson, was so—er—a dizzy that she had to close one eye to keep from seeing double.

And Mabel Morris has had a very sad expression of late. She ought to cheer up 'cause that hefty young man will be back from Honolulu some day.

How are your bangs coming along, Bev? Lottsa people want to give you plenty of the same thing, but on the chin—instead of the forehead. Whom shall I consult in regard to "Elmer Day"?

Lottsa people wish that Jean Baraty would stop bumming weeds. And, of course, Dot Jones and Andy Stevens still eat lunch together and everythin'. Have you noticed how happy Virginia Conlan looks when she gets a letter from Sunnyvale? Tell Walter Nolan that there are better fishing grounds close by—Huey's, for instance.

'Tis rumored that Lois Schalla and Eleanor Wetzel will be sisters-in-law in the near future. Irwin Wetzel is a prof. at Cal. The much advertised Ed Olaf Blondy George Saadallah is now "Panky." Did Dolores Waters find that note that Leo Halligan dropped in her pocket and did she meet him afterwards?

How does Ruth Paulsen get that Helen Kane effect when she hits those high notes in Music 2? It's just too cute for words. I wonder if Jack Bean really studies psychology when he visits Francis Henwood?

Don't those Rasmussen girls look cute! I'll take the red head—No, I'll take—Gosh, I can't make up my mind. Oh, well, maybe my gal would get burnt, so I'll remain neutral. Well, that's all the pi's I can throw atcha this week. Till you need more help,

Your boy, Saturday
(And early Sunday morning).

Thanx loads, Saturday, and every day! You filled a big empty space! Is there "more 2 cum," as the printer says?

Brilliant One Week Campaign Closes As Voters Go to Polls

Installation of Elected Officers Set for Monster Inaugural Ball in State Gym April 12th; Dancing, Entertainment Scheduled

Nominees Battle Fiercely for Lead Late in Morning; Record Total Vote Cast According to Early Counts

By WILL SMITH

An intensive one-week campaign for candidates seeking positions on the Executive Board and the Board of Publications closed today when student voters went to the polls at nine o'clock this morning. Voting was rather light early in the preliminary hours but swelled considerably as the noon hour approached. No definite favorites were in evidence at that hour.

Art Hull, Jerry Kenny, and Ed Morgan are still in the running for the office of student body president. Neither Virginia Conlan nor Betty McDonald have shown a marked plurality as yet. Grace Whitby, the lone candidate for secretary, appeared to have the required number of votes for election late in the morning.

Interest in Positions

The contest between Dick Coughlin, Eugene Dumesnil, and Harvey Williams for the important post of athletic manager was watched with considerable interest. All three are living up to expectations.

Clarice Dechent and Beverly Lyon, the two candidaees for Student Director of Publications, were both able to gather strong support from their respective strongholds. This contest rivalled that of athletic manager for interest because of the importance of the post and the records of the two opponents.

Candidates Express Views at Rally

Last Thursday at 11 o'clock in the women's gym, nominees for the positions were given an opportunity to speak in their own behalf, and to present their running platforms. Allan Howard, Student Body president, presented the contestants in order beginning with those seeking election to the Board of Publications and ending with the nominees for president.

Friday, Jerry Kenney, who is in charge of arrangements for the monster inauguration ball, announced completion of all plans for the event. April 12 is the date and the women's gym will be the scene. Candidates will be officially installed in an atmosphere of music and festivity instead of the usual means. Dancing and entertainment of unusually high quality have been provided for the evening, according to Kenney.

Program Given

Dancing will begin at 8:15 and a regular program of events will be interspersed with the dance numbers. A minimum charge is to be made making possible a Block "S" award dance later in the semester.

Twenty-five cents per couple with Student Body card and fifteen cents for a single person with card are the fees to be charged.

The program as revealed by Kenney will be as follows:

1. Dancing—
   State's Outstanding Orchestra
2. Recitation .....Harry Post
3. Dance number—
   Alice Freitas and Audrey Stewart
4. Dancing .....Hill Billys
   Dawn Wilson and Gang
5. Dancing—
   Installation by President Allan Howard at 10
6 and 7. Dancing.....Hill Billys
8. Dancing .....Orchestra

President

Women Students Plan Mammoth Affair for Faculty Co-ed Party

Twenty-five feature faculty performers in as many different and startling acts for the nominal admission fee of thirty cents!

This is the amazing bargain offered by the A. W. S. at their mammoth "Faculty Co-ed Dime Jinx," April 9, to be held in the Co-op, according to the committee.

The main attraction will be a debate between Dr. Roberts and Mr. King on that vital problem: "Resolved that Girls Should NOT Have a Higher Education."

Miss Fleming will be presented in one of her skits.

Mr. Ray has threatened a fan dance.

Coach Hardin and Mr. Cox have concocted an act guaranteed never to have been performed before.

Mr. Mundt, Mr. Cassidy, Mr. Amsden and Dean Butler will provide the music with assorted quartet and solo offerings.

Only one hundred tickets will be offered for sale.

Tickets went on sale April 1, and will continue to be sold at College Hall from 10 to 3 every day until the supply is exhausted.

Among those who will assist in the ticket selling are Peggy Cleghorn, Grace Bertelson, Betty Berkhead, Virginia Stoner, Helen Kaprelian, Nadelle Nathen, Helen Frank, Navarre Baggett, Marguerite Winters, Alice Moroney, Helen Gleason, and Rosemarie Haas.

Hike, Swim Party Planned by Frosh

Sunday, April 7, the low freshmen will hike to Muir Woods, according to Ed Smith, president of the class. At 8 o'clock the class will leave from the Ferry Building, for Sausalito.

Smith added, "Those who eat will have to bring their own victuals."

The class is also planning a swimming party, possibly to be held at the Fairmont Hotel, and a dinner party. The details will be decided upon at a later date.

Practice Teaching Assignments Made For Many Students

Announcement was made last Friday of the appointment of several State students to practice teaching.

Miss Helen Heintz has been appointed to Lincoln school. She and Mrs. Mary McKeown, a class teacher, are planning social studies projects for the sixth grade classes. Several interesting problems have already been completed and others are in the making.

Miss Alice Gillogly, assigned to the Porter school in Alameda, escorted her fifth grade students to the Pacific Coast Steel Works where they saw steel being prepared for the Golden Gate and Oakland bay bridge.

High Frosh Notice

Nominations and elections of all class officers will be held at the class meeting to be held on Thursday, April 3, 1935, at 11 o'clock in Annex B2. Bud Decker and his stooges will furnish the entertainment after the meeting.

Senior Committee Plans Program For Alumni Homecoming Celebration

Features of Program For Homecoming Day Given by Bill Connolly

All Organizations Urged to Participate in Celebration by Entering Exhibits or Working Up Demonstrations Portraying Their Activities

Saturday Night Climaxes Alumni Fete With Senior Ball

Plans for the Alumni Homecoming Celebration are going ahead at top-notch speed, according to Bill Connolly, chairman of the committee in charge of the event. A meeting of all club presidents was held Friday and an encouraging representation was noted.

"The many active organizations of the college are beginning to assist in working up their respective displays and a program well worth mentioning is being formulated," Connolly went on to say.

Largest Term Project

"The Homecoming is one of the largest projects of the term, and its success greatly depends upon the co-operation of the various clubs. We want a Homecoming that will make the alumni proud that they are graduates of State, and also proud of the progress made by their college in the field of extra-curricular activity.

Opening Is Informal

The affair is scheduled to begin on Friday, April 26, when a convening of the old grads will be held in Frederic Burk Auditorium, at four o'clock. At this time, the alumni will be given a chance to renew old acquaintances and reminisce over the spectacular happenings of their college days. Following this period, College Theater and several other clubs such as Delta Sigma and the Tumbling Group are expected to offer a varied program of entertainment. This opening meeting will be very informal and will be over by six o'clock.

"Open House" on Saturday

Saturday, April 27, will be "Open House," from nine until one. Exhibits arranged by the active organizations will be displayed in the halls of Frederic Burk and College Hall, and by the various athletic clubs will be putting on demonstrations in the auditorium, gymnasium and field, throughout the morning.

As a fitting conclusion, the day will be climaxed by the biggest affair of State's social season—the Senior Ball. Wilma Goss, chairman of the Senior Dance Committee, has announced that the group has definitely decided upon the Sir Francis Drake Hotel as the site. The dance will be strictly semi-formal and tables may be reserved for $1.50 a couple.

Executive Board

The twenty-fifth regular meeting of the Executive Board was called to order by President Allan Howard on Wednesday, March 20, 1935, at 4:20 p. m. The minutes of the previous meeting were approved as corrected.

ROLL CALL

Roll was called and Mr. Moscone, Mr. Eisenhut and Miss Lyon were noted absent.

COMMUNICATIONS

A communication was received from Dean Ward requesting that we consider Ruth Berg for the position of Chairman of Summer Session Student Body.

A communication was received from Mr. Hamrock explaining his tardiness.

COMMITTEE REPORTS

Mr. Kenney stated that the Inaugural Ball will be held in honor of the newly elected officers only, and that an athletic day will be held later on for the awarding of the blocks and the presentation of the new class officers.

The committee investigating the Bib 'n' Tucker constitution stated that the president, Miss Lebrecht, was present and that discussion concerning the amendments would be considered under Old Business.

OLD BUSINESS

Jerry Lebrecht, President of Bib 'n' Tucker, spoke to the Board regarding the limiting of the membership to 25 and answered the questions of the Board members. After a great deal of discussion, it was regularly moved and seconded that the matter be tabled until the next meeting, pending the investigation of a committee, consisting of Miss Porter, Miss Gleason, and Mr. Cockrum, regarding limited membership. Motion passed.

Mr. Hamrock made an inquiry regarding athletic insurance. Mr. Howard appointed him a committee of one to investigate the matter.

NEW BUSINESS

It was regularly moved and seconded that we accept Ruth Berg as Chairman of Summer Session Student Body. Motion passed.

It was regularly moved and seconded that the Executive Board go on record as sanctioning the Board of Publication's right of not signing a petition of a person who is not qualified by experience nor directly connected with school publications. Motion passed.

Petitions from the following were received from:

President—Bill Connolly, Mr. Morgan, Mr. Hull, Mr. Kenney.

Vice-President—V. Conlan, B. McDonald.

Secretary—Miss Whitby.

Treasurer—Mr. Cockrum, Mr. Goodwin, Mr. Ray, Mr. Ross, Mr. Soso.

Athletic Manager—Mr. Coughlin, Mr. Domenii, Mr. Williams.

Yell Leader—Mr. Links, Mr. Ravel.

Director of Publications—Miss Dechent, Miss Lyon, Mr. McDermott.

Board of Publications—Miguel, Walker, Schwass, Harris, Whitney, Pagano, Atkinson, Tuck, Lawrence.

It was regularly moved and seconded that all petitions be accepted; those having a deficiency of units shall tender a resignation with this petition, to become effective in the event that the units are not made up by the beginning of the Fall term. Motion carried.

As there was no further business, the meeting adjourned in proper form.

Respectfully submitted,
BETTY McDONALD,
Secretary.

Junior Day, Prom Offer Amusement

Members of the Low and High Junior classes climaxed two days of festivity with the Junior Prom, at the Devonshire Country Club last Saturday night. Over two hundred couples danced to the music of Hermie Lerch and his orchestra.

The theme of the dance was carried out in spring greens, and the programs were such as to act as both programs and favors. The geineral concensus of opinion among those attending the dance was that this was one of the most orderly dances State ever gave.

Preceding the dance, a day was devoted to merry making on the part of all juniors. Class members wore hats and costumes representing advertisements during the whole Friday. Between the hours of 4:30 and 7, the students gathered in the cafeteria for refreshments, entertainment and dancing. Harry Meyn's orchestra furnished the music.

Prizes were given for the best costumes, and Eleanor Lalanne as Aunt Jemima, and Louis Ray advertising Lux products captured the honors. Many of the ordinarily officious people of the college appeared in unusual costumes. Mr. Donald Sandifur, sponsor of the low juniors, appeared as a Fuller brush man, with a brush in every pocket.

Food for the celebration was donated by several California firms, and the hats worn throughout the day by class members were donated by the Standard Oil Company and the Fuller Brush Company.

Both Dolly Sonderup, chairman of the Junior Prom, and Paul Donaldson, chairman of Junior Day, wish to express their appreciation to those assisting on their respective committees.

Installation Today at 2

This afternoon, Wednesday, April 3, the Parent-Faculty Club meets for its regular meeting to be held in the activities room (Room 109) at 2 o'clock.

Installation of next year's officers will be one of the features of the afternoon. Mrs. Edward Landers, president of this past year, will be reinstalled for the ensuing year.

Dr. Ruth Thomson, associate professor of psychology, will speak on "Maladjustments," A musical program will be presented, including a trombone solo by Alex Terando, a group of vocal solos by Miss Margaret Gleason, and a quarter number, the quartet composed of George Teale, Carleton Peters, Jim Chestnut, and Howard Miguel.

The Parent-Faculty Club welcomes at all times the mothers of the college students. All are invited to come and enjoy the meetings.

Festival

is F. Melius Christiansen's Beautiful Savior. The melody of this dates back to the twelfth century, and it is one of the St. Olaf choir series.

Freeburg Directs Choir

Mr. Roy Freeburg, assistant professor, is director of the A Capella Choir. The choir is the youngest organization in the Music Federation, having given its first concert only one year ago. Students and faculty alike agree that it is fast becoming one of the most popular among the musical groups. Daily rehearsals of the group for many long weeks mark the preparation that has been made for the concert. Mr. William Zech directs the string quartet.

The third in the Spring Music Festival sponsored by the Music Federation will be the band concert on April 16, under the direction of Mr. Donald Sandifur. Mrs. Mary Weaver Macauley's State Carolers will present the following concert on April 23. Concluding the festival will be the program of the Symphony Orchestra, under Dr. William Knuth.

Tickets Are Invitational

Invitations for the entire series may be obtained through officers of the Music Federation, and music faculty members. Because of the limited seating capacity of the Frederic Burk auditorium, it is suggested that those desiring to attend the programs contact the above people as soon as possible. These concerts offered by each unit of the Federation are indeed worth while, and a true opportunity for lovers of good music.

Employees Convene in State Co-op

Business and Social Program Featured by Tumbling and Motion Pictures

President Roberts and other faculty members of San Francisco State Teachers College were hosts to Civic Center Chapter No. 3 of the California State Employees Association last Monday evening.

The event was a combined social and business meeting of the organization.

At 5:30 the program opened with a dinner in the Co-op. The I. X. L. and the Langendorf companies supplied the food and Mr. Perc Marples, manager of the Co-op, was in charge of the dinner arrangements.

Motion pictures in Frederic Burk auditorium were next presented. Alan Howard was manager of this phase of the program. Following, Sally Scott, State physical education instructor, gave a dance, Mr. Farmer gave a fencing exhibition and Mr. Harden, also of State's physical education department, had several wrestling numbers on the program. The P. E. Majors Club, under the leadership of Dorothy Anderson, gave a tumbling exhibition.

The business meeting opened at 7:30 o'clock with Dr. Roberts extending the welcome to the guests.

Among the visitors was E. Roy Higgins, of Sacramento, president of the California State Employees Association, who gave an address and Earl Chapman, who is a member of the California State Association Retirement Board.

Miss Mary Kleinecke, associate professor of English, was the representative from State and was responsible for the program.

'Internationalism' Given as Theme For 1935 Orphic

This year the Orphic, semi-annual publication sponsored by the Scribes Club, will have the theme of "Internationalism." All students who wish to contribute to this magazine are requested to hand in their manuscripts to the Orphic box on the bulletin board as soon as possible.

The literary-minded members of this club have laid aside their pens for a time in order to participate in a drive to raise funds for the Orphic before the publication comes. This term there is an innovation in the manner in which the magazine is being distributed. Students who wish to purchase the Orphic are requested to put a five-cent deposit down on each copy of the publication. With each five-cent deposit a ticket will be given away which will enable the student to have a chance to win five dollars in a drawing which is to be held on April 15 at noon in Room 212. Cyril Atkinson, business manager of the Orphic, explains this drawing, saying, "Last week it was stated in the Golden Gater that Scribes Club was holding a raffle. However, this statement is not true, as we are not holding a raffle. The club is merely giving those who have paid a deposit on the magazine a chance to compete for this prize. Besides the first prize, which will be five dollars, there will be a second prize of $2.50."

Darkest Gambling Secrets Revealed By Mystery Man

Would you like Dr. Kinnaird to teach you how to "deal seconds"? No, he isn't doubling for Father Time, this is just a card sharp's trick.

The erstwhile respectable doctor, in a recent interview, was beguiled into revealing experiences at Monte Carlo, Reno, and points west. For a man who claims he doesn't gamble, he has lots of practical information.

Vivid descriptions of small thousand franc wagers at baccarat in private rooms of famed French casinos, hot games of red dog in Nevada mining camps, and tight black jack contests in the trenches left reporters gaping.

Questioned as to relations between himself and Lady Luck, he slyly replied, "I know all about Napoleon, too, but I have never seen him."

Mr. Coughlin Answers

San Francisco, Calif., April 1, 1935.

The Editor of the Golden Gater:

The Golden Gater published in its issue of March 27 an article entitled "'No Farther' Coughlin" signed by the sports editor, Vernon Whitney. I should like the opportunity to refute the mistaken and illogical ideas that he has presented.

1. ". . . embryo politicians . . . effrontery to nominate . . ." The old story of the Pharisee standing before the altar of the Lord crying "shame" while he himself is guilty of the most malicious, depraved piece of political mud-slinging that has ever been foisted on the students of State. In addition to which he has violated his position of trust as sports editor to make an attack on a fellow student to further the interests of his own person and friends. "Effrontery" . . .?

2. ". . . he is no athlete." I refer you to my talk at the nominations rally in which I stated that the office is one of managing and not one of performing.

3. ". . . has never attended a footbal or baseball game. . . ." Purely political swash-buckling lies. Rather illogical, too, that Al Furst could keep track of one individual out of fifteen hundred over a period of five years, especially when Al was not in school himself during part of those five years.

4. ". . . position should be reserved . . . as a post of honor for some athlete. . . ." The mistaken idea of a few of our athletes that State owes them a living. The position is a working and not an honorary position; otherwise the Constitution should have definitely stated that the office would be reserved for athletes, that they might merit their honor and glory.

5. ". . . all work, no play . . . self-styled Frank Merriwell. . . ." Political hot-heads sometimes boil over unthinkingly.

"6. ". . . position . . . requires more than a superficial knowledge . . . I again refer you to my talk at the nominations rally. Further, my qualifications satisfy Dean Cox; if the dean were not satisfied I should not and could not run for the office. And, after all, he is the man under whom the athletic manager is working. (This was the only legitimate point of the editorial.)

7. ". . . elect a football player president of the Music Federation?" Yes, if he has the necessary qualifications and ability.

8. ". . . elect a music major as athletic manager?" Yes, if he has the necessary qualifications and ability.

DICK COUGHLIN.

P. S.: This article is not directed in any way toward my two opponents, both of whom are my friends, and for whom I have the highest regard and respect.

All Transfers To U. C. Note Credit Change

Those students who intend to transfer to the University of California in the field of literature are advised to know the requirements of U. C. in regard to the transfer of courses.

According to Miss Mary Kleinecke, chairman of the English department, the following is recent information received concerning credit evaluation and course equivalents in English at the university:

English 2 and English 3 is acceptable as a year course in English. For further information on this point students are referred to the U. C. catalogue for 1934-1935, page 30.

Either English 2 or English 3 will apply toward a course at U. C. However, English 1 does not apply.

The following listed courses receive full credit in major or minor course programs:

English 102, the essay; English 104, narrative art; English 154, history of the drama; English 156, Shakespeare; English 160, Chaucer and his times; English 167, The English Bible as literature; English 170, poetry of the romantic revival; English 172, Milton; English 173a, the age of Anne; English 173b, the Age of Johnson; English 178, Victorian Poetry; English 179, Victorian Prose.

Students who expect to complete their major programs at U. C. are advised to select courses in preparation for a comprehensive examination in English literature.

More specific advice is posted on the department's bulletin board opposite Room 206.

P. T. A. Members Hear Talk On "Nursery School"

Frederic Burk P.-T. A. members will hear Miss Lynette Maas discuss the "Nursery School" on Thursday, April 4, in the Frederic Burk auditorium.

Supervisor of the kindergarten-primary department at Frederic Burk, Miss Maas has been selected as a representative of the nursery school committee under childhood education to make a study of nursery schools on the Pacific Coast. The nursery school, now housed in Frederic Burk, is to become a demonstration school and training center for federal nursery school teachers in San Francisco.

A program consisting of creative dancing and a play by a group of Miss Casebolt's dramatic pupils will be given.

Mrs. Austin D. Rouse will preside at the business session and the nominating committee is to give its report on officers selected for the coming year.

A group of student teachers of Mrs. Jessie Billingsley's department will act as hosts and hostesses.

Mr. Boulware Wins Gamma Bridge Prize

With consistently high scores for both evenings of play, Mr. and Mrs. Alexander S. Boulware captured the contract bridge trophy awarded in Alpha Phi Gamma's benefit bridge tournament. The auction bridge trophy was won by Mrs. Ruth Navarrett and Mrs. Marie B. Crandall. Winners of prizes awarded in sections not playing for the trophy and winners of second place in the trophy play included Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Kuster, Mrs. Marie Burrell, Miss Mary Walcott, Miss Margaret Jenson, and Mrs. A. Cummings.

Gail Andrews, president of Alpha Phi Gamma, announced that the benefit had been a complete success and complimented members of the fraternity for their efforts to establish the first scholarship fund on the campus. "Our next step is the selection of candidates for the scholarship," said Miss Andrews. "We have enough to pay all fees for one student to be awarded the 1935-1936 scholarship and will have enough surplus in the fund to start on next year's scholarship. This money will all go for the scholarship fund. No money will be used for any other purpose," according to Miss Andrews.

In thanking those who were most helpful in carrying out the plans for the raising of the scholarship, Miss Andrews gave special mention to Elsa Magnus who was in charge of tickets and to Mrs. Evelyn Rogers who managed the tournament. Harry Marks, Marie Hirsch, and Kay Buckley were also in line for thank yous for co-operation.

Faculty members who contributed to State's first scholarship through purchasing tickets included Miss Kleinecke, Mr. King, Mrs. Spozio, Mr. Nee, Miss Rich, Mrs. Ray, Mr. Bouleware, Mrs. Ellsworth, Mrs. Monroe, Mrs. Fleming, Miss Fleming, Dr. Barney, Miss England, Mrs. Witt-Diamant, Miss Henze, Dean Ward, Dr. Kinnaird, and Miss Allcutt. The fraternity wishes to take this opportunity to thank them for their co-operation.

'Tis No Wonder He Can't Find a Gal But Let's All Hope

Some time ago,
'Bout a year, in fact,
To State I thought I'd go—

Well, the gals were fine,
And the profs all right,
So here for one jolly good time.

Now I've been here a year—
And met the best profs,
But bring on the gals,
Or I'll sure shed a tear.

Debate With Wiley Team Held in F. B.

Delta Sigma Enjoys Bridge Whist Party and Comic Scenes Tonight at Dairy

Delta Sigma's first annual bridge whist party will be held this evening at the Borden dairy plant, according to Pauline Morse, chairman of the event.

Prizes are to be awarded for the bridge and whist games, and music and entertainment will also be provided. A trip through the dairy plant and the serving of ice cream will be two of the high spots of the affair.

Score cards are being sold for 15 cents and may be secured from any club member. The party will take place at the Borden plant, 1325 Potrero avenue, and will begin at 8 p. m.

The club's varsity debate team tangled with a team from Wiley College of Marshall, Texas, Saturday night. State's speakers were Richard Davis, Erwin Bischoff, and Robert Van Houte. They upheld the negative side of the question: "Resolved, That the Nations Should Agree to Prevent the International Shipment of Arms and Munitions."

Mr. Kenneth M. King, debate coach, declared his satisfaction with the way the State team performed. "It was a non-decision contest," he said, "but our team certainly held its own."

Freshmen To Hold Meeting On Thursday

Officers for the coming semester are to be nominated at a meeting of the high frosh tomorrow in Annex 2B. The meeting will be called to order shortly after 12 o'clock.

Howard Demeke and Bud Decker are candidates for president. Dawn Wilson and Shirley Canning are the only candidates for the offices of vice-president, and secretary, at least no opposition is expected.

Everett Parrish, retiring president of the class, in a statement made last Friday, said that the candidates are of excellent quality and with the support of its members should lead the class through a successful year.

After the business meeting an entertainment will be put on featuring Bud Decker's conception of the play "Frankenstein." Class members will play the roles and are as follows: Dr. Frankenstein, Mike Driscoll; Hero, Howard Demeke; Frankenstein's daughter, Harry McDevitt; Monster, Bud Decker. There will also be a novelty wrestling match between Cy Atkinson and Everett Parrish.

Mary Snell, chairman of the hike committee, announced that the class is holding a hike to Lake Alpine. All high frosh who wish to attend will meet April 14 at 8 a. m. at the Ferry building. The fare will be 60 cents.

High Sophs Meet Tomorrow At 11 To Make Plans

Tomorrow at 11 o'clock in Room 114 the high sophs will meet to discuss arrangements now being made for a hike to Muir Woods on April 27. James Hamrock, president of the class, said that further announcement concerning the time of the meeting and the point where it would take place would be made later. It is understood that the class treasury will supply part of the lunch.

A party at Sigmund Stern Grove was also in prospect for the last Friday night in April. Later announcement will also be made in connection with this affair, according to Hamrock.

Publications Group to Hold Semi-Annual Dinner at Trocadero

Deputations Committee Gives Plans

The deputations committee has planned a series of programs to be given at the various high schools in the bay region.

The programs will be given at Mission High School on April 23 and 26; on the 23rd there will be a presentation by the dramatic department and a fencing match, and on the 26th there will be a musical program with A Capella Choir. The next high school will be Balboa on April 24, with a dramatic presentation under the direction of Jesse D. Casebolt, and on April 30 the deputations committee will visit Polytechnic High School with a musical program under the direction of Mr. Freeburg.

In co-operation with Delta Sigma, the deputations committee is sponsoring a series of exhibition debates before high schools of the bay region—Sonoma, James Lick Junior High, and Santa Rosa High, for the purpose of arousing interest in forensics and to exhibit the work of the college. The committee has distributed past annuals to the neighboring high schools to place them in their libraries as the Franciscan is exceedingly popular among students in the libraries. The librarians say that the books are worn out. The faculty publicity committee has also been working on plans to publisize work of the college among high schools.

The college deputations committee is composed of Richard L. Davis, in charge of physical education; Erwin Bischoff, music; Robert Van Houte, drama, and Mr. King, dancing.

Chess Club Plays Balboa

Playing their second match since the formation of the club, State pawn-pushers will engage Balboa this coming Friday.

The match, which is to be played in the rooms of the San Francisco Chess Club, will bring together a seven-board team of high school champions. Balboa has for years ranked amongst the foremost high school teams in the city, this year winning the city championship.

The Gater team has organized rapidly into an efficient team of interested members; ladder matches are still in progress.

The match is to start at 8 o'clock Friday evening. Visitors are cordially invited and although no genius has been found on the State squad, the brand of playing is well worth watching.

State players for this match, in their order, will probably be Gaetano Stella, Smith, Jim Pinkerton, Henry Guilmette, Harold Thompson, George Kollman, Ora Fraser, and Wesley Scott.

Elsa Magnus, Marie Hirsch Are Co-Chairmen of Dinner

New Editor and Business Manager of Gater to Be Announced

Journalists will hold their semi-annual publications dinner on Monday, April 15, at the Trocadero, 609 Montgomery street, according to Elsa Magnus and Marie Hirsch, co-chairmen of the dinner. The price of the dinner will be sixty cents. There is a sign-up in College Hall for all those planning to attend.

The guests of honor will be Dr. Lawrence Kinnaird, faculty sponsor of publications, and Mrs. Kinnaird. Other guests will include members of the English department and of the administration.

Entertainment Varied

At present, the program will include an address by a speaker of prominence in the newspaper world. The other numbers of the program will consist of a skit by Mr. Kenneth M. King, assistant professor of English, songs by Howard Demeke and Dawn Wilson, and a dance by Nadezda Lawrence.

One of the most interesting parts of the program is the introduction of the new editors and business managers of both the Golden Gater and the Franciscan to the journalists. Until the time, the choice made by the Board of Publications is a deep secret. The Student Director of Publications, who will be newly elected by the student body before the dinner, will preside.

Sizzler Comes Out

Another feature of the dinner is the "Sizzler." This paper is only distributed to those attending the dinner and is a "razz" sheet which is well worth reading. The editor of the "Sizzler" is unknown except to the chairmen of the dinner and they feel that the person chosen for this position is exceedingly competent and capable of putting out an unusually fine edition. The copy used for this paper is not restricted to the actions of journalists but contains the experiences of many prominent members of the student body, collected over a long period of time.

Decorations for the dinner will be in the motif of the newspaper world. The committee expects a large turnout for the dinner and all those planning to attend are urged to sign up at once.

Lab Keys Returned

Miss Edna Fisher, B. S. instructor, announced last Wednesday, March 28, that all students who have already or intend to drop a B. S. laboratory course should turn in their locker keys. Miss Fisher stated that those who fail to do so will not be refunded their fifty-cent deposit nor will they receive their grades for any other course until the key has been turned in to her.

GATER BALL TEAM vs. U. S. F. SATURDAY

WITH WHIT

By VERNON WHITNEY

Only the fact that the State baseball nine was walloped by the St. Elizabeth's C. Y. O. team by a score of 10 to 5 Saturday prevented the Gater athletic teams from making a clean sweep of the events scheduled during the week. The Purple and Gold tracksters took the measure of Santa Rosa J. C. by a 72 to 50 margin, the Gater tennis team defeated Santa Clara five matches to four, and the State baseball team beat Lick-Wilmerding J. C. 8 to 4, Galileo 5 to 4, and St. Peter's 4 to 3. The St. Elizabeth loss snapped Coach Hal Harden's ball team's winning streak at seven straight.

Runar Stone Injures Foot

The track team's victory over Santa Rosa may prove to be a costly one, for Runar Stone suffered an injury to his foot while high-jumping. "Runar the Runner" taped the injured extremity up, however, and leaped far enough to take second place in the broad jump. You just can't keep a good man down!

Incidentally, "Sweet Sixteen" lived up to his nickname, tallying sixteen digits in the Gater victory. Runar captured points in all five of the events in which he competed.

'Gritty George' Moscone 'Does It'

Speaking of grit, George Moscone displayed plenty of it Friday, when he pitched the entire St. Peter's game with a sore arm. Moscone shut the Catholic youths out until the final frame, when three bases on balls and a couple of errors gave them a trio of runs. If you have never pitched a game of baseball with a sore flipper, then you don't know what Moscone went through. Every time you deliver the ball, a twinge of pain shoots up your arm. Good going, George, I know how it feels, old man.

Stan Kuder Sets New Mark

Stan Kuder, the fiery-haired freshman, set a new track record for the mile up in Santa Rosa Friday night. Kuder ran the four laps in 4:42 flat, breaking the old mark by almost ten seconds. Quite a performance for a kid who was wearing a green dink a few short weeks ago.

HERE'S HOW

By HOWARD DEMEKE

The Santa Rosa meet was a shivering success for the Gaters, and a memorable experience as well. The bus in which the victorious Purple and Gold squad was returning home, developed a fit of temperament and broke an axle. As this all happened in the vicinity of San Rafael, some ten odd miles from the ferry, Coach Cox's marauding reptiles took to the road in pairs in an effort to hitch-hike the dark and weary remainder of the journey. But the troupe was rescued from a fate worse than death when Mr. Nee came to their aid by flagging a tow-truck and chartering the coarse but adequate means of transporting the straggling trackmen.

State was well represented in the gallery, what with Misses Helen Gleason and Thais Knight being in evidence along with Señors Bill Eich, Don Baim, George Mirande, Ralph Simon, Gene Dumesnil, and others. Incidentally, Dumesnil, so I've gathered, has not missed a major athletic meet in years. What a wonderful thing it would be to have a student body as loyal as the "slender one." It can be, and should be thus.

The weather at Santa Rosa was clear—but was it cold? As frigid as a P. E. major's typical "I beg your pardon" stare. The Klondike-like conditions tended to slow the cindermen up, but "Red" Kuder thrived on them, and lowered the track record for the mile by better than nine seconds.

Next week's meet with Chico should be a tough one for the Gaters. Their sports editor sends word to the effect that the boys "up thar" are really out for our hides this year. Runar Stone might be interested to know that they are counting on holding his point total down to a measly few. That's some job, I reply.

GATER TENNIS TEAM DEFEATS SANTA CLARA

State Racqueteers Win Close 5-4 Match From Broncs

By SAM PHILLIPS

Led by Bob Coss and Harry Post, two ex-basketeers, who scored double victories, the Gater tennis team defeated the Broncos 5 matches to 4 Saturday on the college courts.

Coss and Post won their singles events and then combined in the doubles to win the decisive match of the series.

Coss and Post Come from Rear

Showing the intestinal fortitude that most of the Gaters have demonstrated this season, Coss and Post came back with the score 5-3 against them in the final set to win the set and the match 6-3, 5-7, 7-5.

Continuing his unbeaten singles play, Ronnie English had a rather easy time in defeating Henry Vizzoli in straight sets, losing only three games, 6-1, 6-2.

Fred Gugat Comes Back

After a layoff of two weeks, Fred Gugat came back to defeat Richard Schmidt, number two man for Santa Clara, 5-7, 6-3, 6-3. State will be greatly strengthened by Gugat's re-entry into the ranks.

Owen McCusker, former St. Ignatius High School star and regular center on the Bronco football team, defeated Joe Rosen 6-4, 6-1. McCusker, a mere 200-pounder, showed dexterity and speed in covering the court.

Kim Loses Tough One

"Kipling" Kim has not won a match yet, but a gamer player has not been seen on the State courts' this year. Kim has been nosed out mostly in his final set. When his luck changes you'll see his name in the winners' column. He lost to Bert Mitchell, 6-4, 5-7, 7-5.

The results:

Singles: Ronnie English (S) def. Henry Vizzoli (SC) 6-1, 6-2. Fred Gugat (S) def. Richard Schmidt (SC) 5-7, 6-3, 6-3. Owen McCusker (SC) def. Joe Rosen (S) 6-4, 6-1. Bob Coss (S) def. Frank Doherty (SC) 6-0, 7-5. Bert Mitchell (SC) def. Kipling Kim (S) 6-4, 5-7, 7-5. Harry Post (S) def. George Fahey (SC) 6-1, 6-2.

Doubles: McCusker and Vizzoli (SC) def. Gugat and English (S) 6-3, 8-6. Post and Coss (S) def. Doherty and Schmidt (SC) 6-3, 5-7, 7-5. Fahey and Mitchell (SC) def. Kim and Catuzzo (S) 8-10, 6-4, 6-3.

Gater Baseball Team Wallops Lick, 8-4

Kenny Wilkes pitched one-third of an inning last Wednesday against Lick Wilmerding Junior College, and received credit for the victory, State walloping the Tigers by a score of 8 to 4 in a game played at Jackson Park. Vern Whitney started on the mound for the Gaters and was touched for six hits in the five and two-thirds innings that he worked. Coach Harden jerked him with two outs in the sixth inning, when Lorenzi singled to send Francho home with the run that knotted the count at 2 to 2.

Wilkes was batted out of the box in the next inning, himself, George Moscone finishing up the contest, but the Gaters had tallied six runs in their half of the sixth, so it didn't matter as the game was on the well known ice.

Cuneo, Lick hurler, held State to three scattered hits until the sixth, when they pounded out a half dozen bingles to take a decisive lead. George Moscone led the Gater batters with two hits in four times at bat. Kenny Wilkes drove the ball over the left field fence during the rally, but the hit was limited to two bags, due to a ground rule.

Gater Tennis Team Meets Card Jayvees

Coach Dan Farmer's Gater tennis team travels down to "The Farm" Saturday when they tangle with the Stanford junior varsity on the Stanford courts at 1:30 p. m. The State racqueteers have won three of their four matches this year, having been beaten only by the powerful San Mateo Junior College squad.

Block "S" Men Disclose Plans For Sport Jig

By RUDY RUDD

In a couple of weeks the Block "S" Society is going to throw a nice sport dance. It is going to be at the Sigmund Stern Grove the evening of April 17, price 35 cents per each. Bring the family.

Chairman Harold Beseman, with the aid of an able committee, has secured the grove, and is making sure that there will be plenty of eats and entertainment. Hot dogs, salad, coffee, and cigarettes are on the bill of fare. You bring the cigarettes.

Ticket or Leave It

Tickets are on sale by the committee, composed of Joanne and Virginia Conlan, Dot Tuttich, Reverly Lyons, Pauline Quirk, and Ann Rassmussen. Just step up to one of them, and dare her to sell a bid.

It's Finance Dandy

Sid Trager says he is all set to count the shekels as soon as they start to roll in. He has a new set of tires for his car and a spotlight all picked out. Bob Marcus is watching him carefully, and will get his usual 10 per cent cut. Ralph Nathan, besides trying to watch Miss Hussey and the clock, will be on the lookout for his interests. So, besides the cost of eats, it is plain to see how high finance goes at State.

Nickerson Has Capacity

Mel Nickerson will get his workout at the dance. He is one of the lightest-haired and heaviest-eating men in the college. If it were not for your faithful news-gatherer, Rudy Rudd, you would not have to read this truck.

By JAMES HAMROCK

Last Saturday the State tennis team edged out a 5 to 4 victory over Santa Clara in very closely fought matches. With bigger and better hopes, the Gater racketeers will travel to the Broncos' corral a week from this Friday. This time expectations are that our boys will dump them by a 7 to 2 score. This should be done because of the addition of Henry Guilmette, second man, and Joe Rosen, third doubles player, to the team.

Amos Alonzo Stagg and his wild College of Pacific gridders are making headlines these days with their hard spring workouts. The Tigers have games with St. Mary's, U. S. C. and U. C. All three teams have given indications of taking the Tigers seriously. And Stagg has hopes!

Do these Japanese know their baseball? Last Sunday the Tokio Giants, barnstorming Japanese baseball team, defeated Seattle of the Pacific Coast League, 16 to 6, displaying all-around ability.

Helen Jacobs of Berkeley, California, queen of American tennis, today wears the Egyptian crown as well. She defeated Evelyn Dearman of England in the finals of the Egyptian championship Sunday, 6-2, 6-0. Do you Cairo?

The University of Nevada greeted with a turnout of forty men for spring football workouts, is all optimism. However, Coach "Brick" Mitchell is faced with one great shortage—that of backfield men.

Carl Gelatt Elected Honorary Hoop Leader

Carl "Scooter" Gelatt, star forward on Coach Dan Farmer's 1934-35 Gater basketball team, was elected honorary captain of the squad last week. Gelatt played four years of basketball for the Purple and Gold, and his election to the captaincy of the team was a fitting climax to his hoop career.

Post Wins in Debut

Making his debut as a member of the State tennis team last Saturday, Harry Post, Gater basketball star, scored victories in both his singles and doubles matches against Santa Clara. He beat George Fahey, 6-1, 6-2, and paired with Bob Coss to take the doubles encounter, 6-3, 5-7, 7-5.

St. Elizabeth Baseballers Down State

C. Y. O. Boys Wallop Gaters 10 to 5; Regan Shines

There was something laughable about the baseball that they tossed out onto the playing field Saturday at Portola diamond. At least, the Gaters got a boot out of it—ten boots in fact, and when the smoke had cleared away the St. Elizabeth's C. Y. O. team had ten runs to State's five.

Coach Hal Harden's nine presented the Catholics with four runs in the first inning on one hit, a base on balls, and five errors, and in the third they kicked in three more with three more bobbles, coupled with two hits.

St. Elizabeth's caught the fever, also. They made seven errors, themselves, and booted in all of the Gater runs. If it hadn't been for his team-mates' bobbles, "Porky" Sheridan would have shut out the Staters. "The Porker" limited them to three singles, and fanned eleven of them.

They said that "Porky" was through. They said that the chunky little fellow who was the ace of "AA" semi-pro baseball while he was in junior high school five or six years ago, was at the end of the trail—they said that he couldn't stand the gaff—that he was a "five-inning pitcher."

Well, "Porky" showed 'em. He was so washed up at the finish that all he could do was strike out George Bogdanoff, Art Rosen, and Vern Whitney in order in the ninth inning, duplicating a feat that he had performed once before in the third. Sheridan retired the side one, two, three in the first three innings, and turned the trick three more times during the game.

The only ray of light in the disheartening exhibition put on by the Gaters was Frank "One Per Cent" Regan's outstanding work at shortstop. "The Methodical Mechanician of the Midpatch" handled ten chances without a miscue, excepting one in the third inning.

Six State runners actually crossed the plate, but Bob Marcus was called out in the eighth inning for "missing" third base. All Bob did was step on it so hard that he suffered a charley-horse in so doing, and barely limped home ahead of the throw-in. This unfortunate decision put the skids on a Gater rally, as it made the third out in the canto. Coach Harden's Boys had just tallied four times, and would have only been behind eight to six with a man on second base had not the umpire called the play as he did.

However, on the afternoon's play the Purple and Gold team was definitely outclassed. Sheridan simply had too much stuff for them. They were unable to hit, even when he lobbed the ball over, as he did in the early innings, when he led, 8 to 1.

The box score:

Wilkes,3b	3	2	1	Hawley,rf	4	0	1
Bell,c	1	0	0	Baletto,3b	5	1	1

State 4, St. Peter's 3

Coach Hal Harden's Gater baseball team defeated St. Peter's 4 to 3 at Glen Park Friday. The victory was a particularly sweet one for the State nine, as St. Peter's was one of the two teams to register two wins over the Purple and Gold last year.

George Moscone shut the Cathlics out until the final inning, when three successive bases on balls, followed by a hit and two errors, gave them their three runs. Moscone allowed only five hits, and he was pitching under the handicap of a sore arm!

Truck Trek Two Times Track Team

After two weeks of rainy weather, the San Francisco State tracksters finally got a chance to unlimber their muscles last Friday night; in fact, they were forced to unlimber them twice before bringing home their victory over Santa Rosa Junior College.

Tired But Happy

The Gaters left Santa Rosa about 11 o'clock with a hard-earned 72 to 50 victory under their belts. Naturally they were happy. Dusty Rhodes' old bus hit the trail, and the gang started singing under the leadership of that speed demon, Al Parrish. Everyone felt swell except, possibly, Harvey Williams, who wanted to go to sleep. Even Coach Dave Cox joined in on a couple of old tunes.

"There's a Long, Long Trail"

The singing continued for nearly an hour when it suddenly stopped. The fellows wanted to save their wind for the home stretch. Only thirteen miles more to the Sausalito ferry. About five minutes later a peculiar noise was heard in the rear of the bus. Something has gone wrong with the gears. The bus wouldn't budge an inch. Most of the men got out and started hiking to the ferry.

Harold Martin Also Ran

Dick Davis and "Biff" Shreve, veteran cross-country runners, headed one squad, with Harold Martin, publicity manager, trailing in last place most of the way. After walking five miles a tow car picked up the various contingents, which were strung out all along the highway, and took the entire squad to the ferry. The boat docked in San Francisco at 2 o'clock Saturday morning.

"Nee Action"

Mr. Leo C. Nee, financial secretary of the college, made the trip with the team and enjoyed the experience. He said, "The next time I will bring my skates along."

Mr. Kenneth King, debate coach, is in favor of an international agreement to prevent similar happenings.

Jennie Phillips, Harry Marks Win In Mixed Doubles

Jennie Phillips and Harry Marks advanced into the second round of the mixed doubles tournament by winning a tough 8-6, 6-4 match from the team of Helen Kane and Joe Rosen. The encounter was as close as a barber shop shave, and only the superior steadiness of the Phillips-Marks combination carried them through to victory.

The left-handed team of Kane and Rosen was just a trifle more erratic than their opponents, and they put up a stiff fight before succumbing. Better back-court play won the match, as there was but little volleying, both teams being content to try to out-drive their opponents from the base-line.

Miss Kane bore the brunt of the attack, and the little left-handed miss returned fore-hand for fore-hand and back-hand for back-hand throughout the set-to. Rosen's play was off, the varsity man making a considerable number of errors in contrast to the steady game that he usually displays.

Pat Bowers Drives Gater Nine to Win

Unsung until the Galileo baseball game at Southside last Thursday, Pat Bowers, a substitute State outfielder, covered himself with glory in the Gaters' 5 to 4 victory over the Lions. Coach Hal Harden injected Bowers into the lineup with the Purple trailing 4 to 3 in the sixth inning, and all that Pat did was to bang out a triple and score the tying run in that frame, and single to drive Joe Lee home with the winning marker in the next canto.

Gus Conlan, State's star southpaw, limited Galileo to five hits, holding them hitless in the final three innings. Gus had plenty of zip on his fast ball, and his curve was breaking like bad news.

The Gaters picked up thirteen hits on their part, but the Lion hurler, Paolucci, a mere slip of a southpaw, made them look rather foolish at times, fanning six of them in the six innings that he pitched. All in all, the game was far too close for comfort, and had it not been for Bowers' Frank Meriwell act, State would have tasted the dregs of defeat.

Gater Track Team Beats Santa Rosa

Coach Cox's Spikesters Wallop Cubs 72-50; Stone Stars

By HOWARD DEMEKE

The San Francisco State track team journeyed to Santa Rosa last Friday evening, and returned with a well-earned 72-50 victory over the men of the Valley of the Moon. The meet took place under floodlights, and cold weather prevailed, preventing the men from turning in their best performances. However, one track record fell when Stan Kuder, State's red-headed middle-distance star, trotted the mile in 4:42 to take nine and four-fifths seconds from the old mark.

Al Parrish Wins "100"

Al Parrish, showing his best form this year, provided the major upset in winning the century dash. His win was not accidental, however, as the time, 10.4, was good considering the conditions. Jack Murphy came back to take the 220 from Butler of the enemy in 23.4. Parrish weakened in this event, and had to be content with third honors.

Hastings of Santa Rosa took first in the 880, closely followed by Dick Davis and Harry Meyn of State. Harvey Williams looked like the sure winner in this run, but could not finish, allowing the J. C. lad to grab the race. In the 440, Santa Rosa walked away with the first two places. Meyn of State took third.

Steve Ebert Second in Shot

Steve Ebert had a discouraging evening when Abendroth bested him in the shot-put, by the margin of less than a foot. Steve's heave of 41 feet 4 inches was 5 inches short of the winning performance. Owen Jones took third with a toss of 38 feet 7 inches.

The broad-jump was a see-saw affair between "Ru" Stone and Santa Rosa's versatile Ono. The colorful Oriental finally won out after a tough contest. In his second-to-last try, Stone managed to surpass the best previous mark of his rival, but the shortnamed chap came back to leap 21 feet 9¾ inches, or about four inches better than "Ru's" effort. Hal Garden was improving with every jump, and stole third place with a leap of 20 feet 1¾ inches. Stone was competing on a "bum foot," having injured his pedal extremity in the high jump.

"Ru" Stone Cops Javelin

The javelin throwers were in the act of having a close contest until Stone showed up to take his turn. The slender Gater sewed the event up for the Purple and Gold with his first and only toss—just four inches short of 170 feet. Jones again showed his supremacy in the discus throw when he won the event with a mark of 133 feet. State copped all three places, much to the disgust of the Red and Blue outfit, Ebert taking second and Stone third.

The low-hurdles provided the fun on the program when Bob Robinson and Darryl Hopkins entered the race. Neither Robby or Hopkins had ever run the steeple-chase before, but the erstwhile high jumper led the pack home, while State's star 440 man took third. The time, 28.7, is slow for the event, but all things considered the attempt was gallant, and the results pleasing to the State score-keeper. Kenny Wilkes, the Gater low-hurdles mainstay, was conspicuous by his absence. The "mighty atom" was prevented from making the trek to the cinder duel because he aided the Gater baseball nine in a game the same day.

Lou Morrison Takes Highs

The high-hurdles were run over a ninety-yard course, instead of the customary hundred and twenty, but that fact did not prevent Lucian Morrison from breaking the tape first. Lou's time of 11.7 is extraordinary when one remembers that the lean chap has been in ill health for the past month.

All-in-all, the clash was an interesting one to behold and a commendable one to win. Runar Stone was high point man with sixteen markers to his credit.

Men's Club Boxing Entries Are Listed

Eddie Saadallah, chairman of the Men's Club boxing tournament, announced yesterday that the following men had entered the tournament, which will be run off in the week following the Easter holidays.

Kenny Wilkes, 130 lbs.; Ronnie English, 145 lbs.; Felix Grosso, 150 lbs.; George Powles, 158 lbs.; James Hamrock, 165 lbs.; James Kilkenny, 165 lbs.; Ralph Nathan, 165 lbs.; Bob Marcus, 165 lbs.; Bill Dasmann, 168 lbs.; Al Greenberg, 168 lbs.; Herb Vecki, 175 lbs.; Dick Hurst, 180 lbs., and Hal Beseman, 190 lbs.

STATE TRACK TEAM JOURNEYS TO CHICO TO MEET WILDCATS; 'RU' STONE ON INJURED LIST

Gater "One Man Team" Suffers Bruise to Metacarpals in High Jump at Santa Rosa; Doubtful Entrant

By HOWARD DEMEKE

Next Saturday afternoon, the Purple and Gold cinder team will vie with the men of Chico State in a dual meet on the northerners' field. Chico reports that it has one of the strongest aggregations in years, and wishes to remind the Staters that she intends to win the combat by a goodly margin. Their contentions seem justified to some extent, but your writer wishes to add that he can see no reason which would explain the over-abundance of confidence in the enemy camp. This Gater team can be beaten—but not routed.

Runar Stone Hurt

The Gater may be a "lame duck" in the coming affair if Runar Stone's injured foot fails to respond to treatment. The graceful "Ruins" twisted one of his valuable "tootsies" in the Santa Rosa duel last Friday night. The injury is not one of a serious nature, but might easily handicap the "Beautiful Behemoth" for a short time. If Stone is not in the best shape for the coming battle, the results may easily be disastrous.

Chico Untried As Yet

Coach Hubert McCormack and his men have not engaged in any meets other than their own interclass affair. Nevertheless, plenty of raw material was in evidence, and Coach Cox's men can well afford to be on their toes if they would bring home the proverbial bacon for their alma mater.

Chico has two good men to offer in the century sprint. Clarence Henry, who won the interclass dash with a mark of 10.4, and Fran Smith, who has done 9.9 in the past years. Henry also took first honors in the 220, running the furlong in 22.3. Word has it that Clarence is capable of doing much better with the advantage of further conditioning. In past seasons he has consistently broken ten flat.

Wildcat Quarter-Milers Good

The versatile Henry will be on the firing line for Chico again in the 440, along with two of his cohorts, Jenks and Chesney. All three of these men are apt to cross the finish in the neighborhood of 52 flat, thus making it necessary for Bobby Robinson to deliver his best performance of the year if he would win. The same goes for Stan Kuder, inasmuch as Chico has four ultra-milers who can break 4:40 in the redhead's pet event. This ample quartet is composed of Schneider, Rizzi, Manley, and Stade. Manley will be on hand again in the two-mile marathon, along with a chap named Herman. Both these lads are likely to complete the eight laps in 10:30.

Chico Strong in Lows

In the low hurdles, State's host will be exceptionally strong, what with Jim Hayes and Tom Wray entered in the contest. Hayes can cover the distance in 24, and Wray has an enviable 25.7 to his credit. Both Hayes and Wray will return to pit their ability against State's pair of mighty high-hurdlers. While both the enemy boys can run the steeplechase under 16, I think it is safe to say that Ru Stone and Ray Morrison will have a little race of their own.

Wildcat Vaulters Classy

In the field events, Chico has a veteran in every department but the high jump. Sherrod and Evans look like the class in the pole vault. Both have cleared 12 feet in the past. This same Sherrod threw the javelin 177 feet in his school's interclass meet, and might even do better next Saturday. As if that were not enough, Crabtree will also bid for honors if he is in form.

Steve Ebert Up Against It

Steve Ebert will have a terrific assignment when he meets Mealiffe and Jorgensen in the shot put. The Red and White man-mountains both heave the metal sphere over 43 feet. Owen Jones will be almost as hard-pressed in the discus toss. Mealiffe, Causely, and Matthews have been flinging the platter around 130 feet.

Stone in for a Battle

Benny Aiello and his teammates, Sullivan and Campbell, should give "Ru" Stone a hectic battle in the broad jump. Aiello has jumped 22 feet 7 inches in days gone by, and the others did better than 21 feet last week.

Coach McCormack unquestionably has a strong and well balanced outfit. His squad has an abundance of raw material in addition to many veterans. So promising is this year's squad, that Chico is actually counting on winning over Santa Rosa J. C., San Jose State, S. F. U. and Nevada, in addition to our own Gaters. They may defeat us, but the result will show that it was not a white-wash.

State Varsity Beats Sacred Heart, 8-6

Pat Bowers Wallops Home Run as Conlan Subdues Irish

A couple of former Sacred Heart boys ganged up on their alma mater yesterday, and almost single-handedly defeated her by a score of 8 to 6 at Bryant Park. Gus "Lefty" Conlan and Pat (yourself on the back) Bowers were the ingrates, and between the two of them they made life very miserable for "St. Mary's" Bonnelli, the "Irish" coach.

Pat Bowers Slugs

Gus poured them in, out on the mound, and Pat was waving "the same old shillaleh his father brought from Ireland." Bowers belted out a home run, a double and a single in four times at bat, driving in four runs. Conlan hurled effective ball, fanning seven of the Catholics.

Ragged Game

The ball game was as ragged as the seat of Mr. Average Man's pants in this sixth year of our depression, each of the teams making four errors, and playing like bushers on half a dozen other occasions. The Gaters scored in every inning but the first, and collected a total of eleven basehits in their six cantos at bat. Sacred Heart got eight hits in seven innings, but three of them were of the scratch variety.

Joe Lee Makes Nice Play

Joe Lee, Gater third-sacker, made a nice play in the final frame, when he knocked down De Stephano's hard grounder, and threw him out at first with a beautiful toss to Bogdanoff.

Sacred Heart threatened throughout the contest, and had the tying runs on second and third base in the final inning, but Conlan whiffed Rotelli to end the game. The count was three and two when the Gater southpaw struck out the Irish outfielder.

The box score:

Presenting "Wild Bill" Harkness, nucleus of Coach Cox's football machine, and State's premier pole-vaulter. Bill is a home-grown mass of protoplasm, having received his prep training at Poly, where he was one of Paul Hungerford's most formidable swineskin toters during the years 1932 and 1933.

Bill has a new pastime these days. The pole-vault is the latest object of his affections, and with a little more practice, he will probable be going much higher than the eleven feet, six inches which he is clearing at present. In State's first meet of the current track season, Harkness copped first place in this event.

Willie has quite a reputation for being able to "take it." Football players say he can survive the toughest sort of games without sustaining the slightest sign of an injury. "I've been learning to fall all my life," said the human tractor, "and I'm finally getting to the point where I can begin to feel that fate will be gentle."

Your writer believes Bill when he says he can fall correctly, after having caught a glimpse of the delightful five-foot-two reason who trips gracefully about our campus to the sighs of lovelorn males.

IT SPEAKS FOR ITSELF

Dear Lid Lifter:

This is pretty good!

Students moan about censorship. They want and will fight (?) for press freedom.

Yet how they moaned when an uncensored, unsuppressed opinion was pubished on the sports page!

Will "More Power" Coughlin answer? I hope he does. That's the thing that will prove whether the Gater is an associated student paper or whether it is playing politics. We're Waiting.

* * *

Now that the Nomination Rally is over, I suppose that a Liberal Student, because of his March 27 article, "Sweet and Sour," and Cyril Atkinson, because of his March 27 letter, "Poor Mr. Baker," will cast their eyes upon the ground and blush for shame. I now know that Mr. Baker is not the beast that these two defamers painted him; in fact, he ranks with the better class of State students—he is on a par with the man in whom we put our trust, the man for whom we went to the polls and elected, the man who is guiding the ship of State, our president, Allen Howard.

If our president does something, it must be good and righteous so to do. If our president can apologize for a deed that was not done by him, then so can Mr. Baker. If our president can campaign-apologize to Mr. Coughlin for that dastardly article, Mr. Whitney, then the brow-beaten Mr. Baker can also apologize to the Symposium Committee for that article by Eriatlov.

Now, being that it is the fashion at S. F. T. C. to apologize for others' doings, I, at this time, on bended knees, wish to humbly apologize to our president for that terrible outburst of Mr. Whitney at the Nomination Rally. Mr. Whitney had no right, whatsoever, to say that he didn't wish to apologize when our president was so kindly humbling himself for the said shameful, righteous-minded individual.

The only solution that could ever appease our president is to wash Mr. Whitney's mouth with soap and immediately expel him from school. What a terrible catastrophe if we had more students like him.

The wrong party might get into office, the Co-op might be forced to sell at lower prices, and the people of S. F. might learn that there are two institutes of higher learning in S. F.

Heaven forbid! Tryto Straighter Outer.

P.S. I double dare you to use this in the next issue of the Golden Gater.

* * *

Dear Lid Lifter:

Here's for you, and the Freedom of the Press "as is"! The examples of freedom of student opinion as expressed in the last few issues of the paper are to be commented upon. Right or wrong, they are stimulating to thought, and might bring to life some of the dead brain cells around here. More power to you all. D. L.

* * *

Dear Lid Lifter:

Who's censoring the press? That, apparently, is something new? Perhaps certain candidates for the Board of Publications had to have something to talk about, and since they didn't dare speak about their records they thought a cry about press freedom would go over.

Liberal.

* * *

Dear Lid Lifter:

I am writing to express my sorrow and disgust that such an article as "'No Farther' Coughlin" should be printed in the Golden Gater.

Reason No. 1: Our paper should be kept non-partisan. Paid advertisements from all candidates are acceptable, however.

Reason No. 2: School politics should be on a decent, friendly basis, not having a mud slinging status such as our outside politics have.

I would suggest that the author of that uncalled for article stick to sports writing and let the editoress do the editorials. I will then hope that she uses more discretion than when she allowed "'No Farther' Coughlin" to appear in the first place. W. E. R., Jr.

* * *

Dear Lid Lifter:

Why all the controversy about "Freedom of the Press"? Isn't there enough expression of personal opinions in our paper already without licensing the printing of further articles like the one written by Vernon Whitney? (See last week's Gater.)

This abuse of one's position should certainly not be condoned. It cannot be called fair to allow a small group of students (members of the Gater staff) to print their views about conditons, people, and things, and display the paper as a representative publication of the college.

The students want a SCHOOL PAPER, not a scandal sheet filled with news of the private opinions and petty quarrels of one small part of the community. Yours for NEWS,

Anti-Scandal-Monger.

* * *

Dear Lid Lifter:

Are certain students surprised to know that censorship IS necessary? Without censorship there would be no discrimination between truth and falsehood. Facts would mean nothing. Rumor would mean everything. (We could, perhaps, then expand our Golden Gater into a semi-weekly twelve page issue.)

Are certain students surprised to learn that despite all this noise on student opinion, the Lid Lifting column (with the exception of this week) usually lacks comment? That is a bit ironic.

Are certain students surprised to learn that the faculty sponsor and the administration have yet to censor an article for this publication? On the contrary, it is to their progressiveness that they have co-operated in every way to make an associated students' paper an associated students' paper.

Are certain students surprised to learn that the editor is the sole censor of this publication? She is appointed by the Board of Publications, a student elected group. Now, what more could the students want?

There is no ground for false rumor.

We have freedom of the press.

Kay Buckley,
Editor of the Golden Gater.

LIFTING THE LID

THAT'S BAD

Lid Lifter:

If it is against the fire regulations and rules of the college to have students who are late locked out of class rooms . . . how is it that this situation prevails in some music classes? A commuter came across the bay to attend one class, only to be locked out because he was two minutes late. P. B.

BENEFIT BRIDGE

Dear Lid Lifter:

I would like to praise the members of the Alpha Phi Gamma for their good work. The plan of giving a scholarship to an outstanding bay region graduate is an excellent idea—the type of thing that will really "put State on the map."

—C. W. R.

* * *

DIRTY POLITICS!

Dear Lid Lifter:

Vernon Whitney has gone too far. He has gone beyond fair play, and has entered the field of DIRTY POLITICS.

—Closer Home.

* * *

NUDIST CAMP?

Dear Lid Lifter:

What is this world coming to? Please do something about the nudist colony on the lawn. Sunshine is fine, but methinks tan should be acquired on a beach.

—Old Maid.

* * *

WE LIKE 'EM HARD!

Dear Lid Lifter:

Why can't the Co-op have more hard rolls for hot dogs? Some students inform me that there is no profit in hard rolls. I thought that the whole affair was supposed to be co-operative.

—Dentyne Joe.

MUSICAL NOTES

BY CAHN

Well, the Symphony finally appeared.

The ovation given to the Symphony was a sincere welcome and a plea for more concerts. Voting for Amendment No. 3 will assure us of continued concerts. If this amendment is passed, our Symphony will be a civic enterprise. This is as it should be.

♭ ♮ ♯

Recital Notes:

Warren Green bringing the first note of comedy to the recitals with his amusing Barber of Turin song . . . also bringing down the house with laughter and applause. . . . Nathan Koblick's unheralded entrance and triumphal exit. . . . Love arias sung by Edith Short and Warren Green, who meant every word of it. . . . Edith getting in lotsa words per second in her Rossini offering despite her bad cold. . . . Expert piano moving instruction given between the acts by Barrett and Biedov. . . . The third String Quartet getting over their nervousness in time to give a fine interpretation to the Haydn number. . . . More faculty members in attendance necessitating a "faculty row." Carleton Peters doing all the accompanying and too bashful to take the bow he earned. . . . Total attendance, 124. . . .

Cahn-notations

Regrets to those who missed Mr. White's recital last night. . . . Locked doors won't keep music studes out of harmony classes any more. . . . Skeleton keys are being passed around. . . . Hah! hah!. . . . Personal nomination for the most progressive conductor on the air . . . Meredith Wilson, NBC . . . and a close second . . . Andre Kostalanetz. . . . The next recital hour brings Ken McDonald, Jib Robinson, Marie Cakins and others. . . . State's musicians are already scampering for summer jobs. . . . Some will play at resorts and others hope to hit the high seas . . . no pun intended. . . . A Bowery orchestra of five pieces is needed to play for the College Theater play, "The Dead Sister's Secret." Attention, Mr. Meyn. . . . Seems like old times to hear the Symphony again. . . . Lotsa Staters present. . . . We have it on good authority that Warren Green did some pretty important shopping for Edith Short last week. It was something little. . . .

Whether music students know it or not, they have elected a fine administrative board to the Music Federation this semester. Possibly that is evident by the results they have obtained so far.

At present the Music Federation is working feverishly to make our second Spring Music Festival a success. The part you can play is an easy one. Merely invite your friends to attend the concerts. Of course you are invited, and the admission is free.

. . . YOUR DUTY! . . .

—Cut by Locke and Rudd.

Freedom of speech, the press, and political ideas are the true heritages of the great American Spirit. Progress in political thought and ideas have made this country the great nation it is today.

San Francisco State contributes to the furtherance of these ideals in a true patriotic spirit. Our press is open to any member of the student body.

Just as great, if not greater than press freedom, is the choosing of OUR REPRESENTATIVES. This is the voting privilege.

Do your part in exercising the ballot privilege. Vote today. When casting your ballot, consider the things the candidates have promised. Contrast these with their previous records. Above all things

GO TO THE POLLS TODAY.

HIT and MISS

BY HARRY MARKS

IT IS STILL too early in the day to tell who the new Student Body officers will be. In fact, at the time of this writing (Saturday morning) no votes have been cast.

However, the old dare-devil spirit demands that we make at least one election prediction, so here goes. We name Grace Whitby as the new Student Body secretary. In fact, we'll go still further—as Grace is the only one running, she will win in a walk.

THINGS LOOK MIGHTY dark for next year's Franciscan. It is to be hoped that before the Annual is dropped its value to the college will be carefully considered. Certainly we have no student activity more representative than the Franciscan. A half-dozen All-American certificates testify to that.

EVOLUTION OF AN APPLE-POLISHER: 1920: "Thanks, Smithy. It was nice of you to remember teacher with that nice apple." 1924: "Why, surely you can walk home with me, Smithy." 1930: "Yes, Smith, I will loan you some extra books on the course." 1934: "Yes, I would be glad to discuss the subject more deeply, Mr. Smith." 1935: Mrs. and Mr. R. W. Jones announce the engagement of their daughter, Mary, to Mr. John Smith. Mr. Smith is employed in the Jones Company Store. * * * Have you ever tried to catch Mr. Freeburg between choir rehearsals, classes, meetings, appointments, band practice, lunch, and all kinds of ding-dongs, long enough to have him sign one dratted little music minor application? I have practically decided to give it all up, and be a P. E. minor. * * * You made your bed; now eat it!

There's something about a Chesterfield——

There's one thing I especially like about Chesterfields—entirely aside from the fact that it's a milder cigarette—and I've heard a number of people say the same thing ...While I'm smoking Chesterfield I never get little crumbs of tobacco in my mouth—the tobacco doesn't spill out and that adds a lot to my pleasure of smoking them ...I notice more and more of my friends smoke Chesterfields.

WE ASKED OUTDOOR PEOPLE:

"Is this fact important to You?"

"Camels are made from finer, more expensive tobaccos.. Turkish and Domestic.. than any other popular brand."

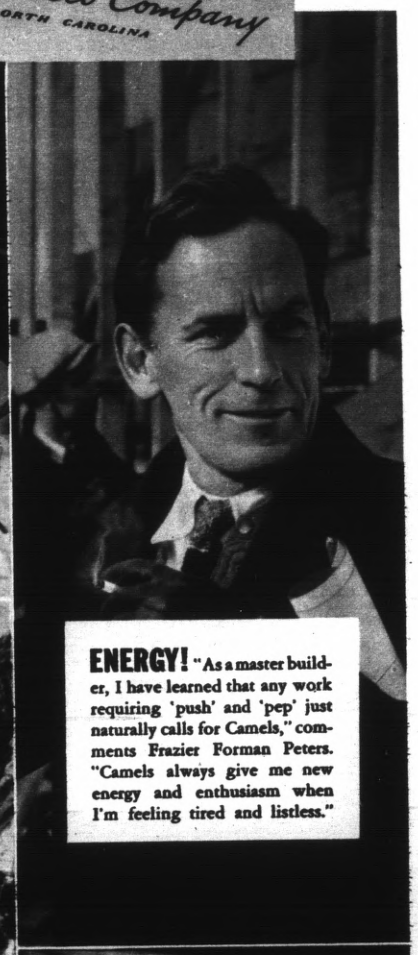
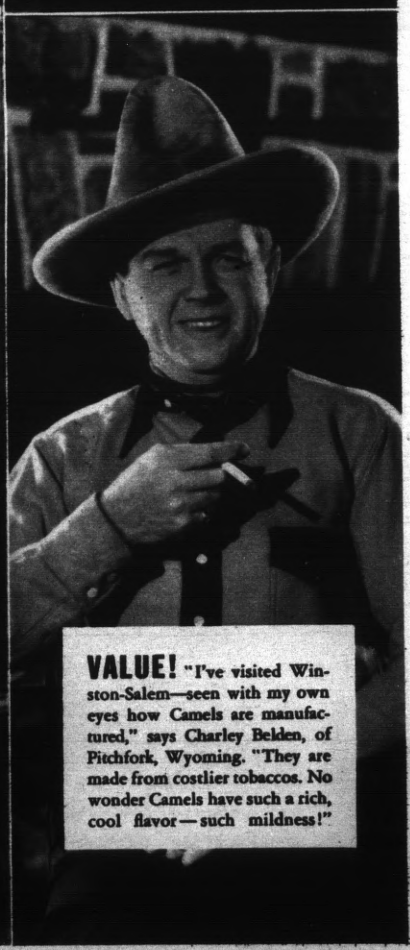
MILDNESS! "Every woman prefers a milder cigarette," says Miss Helene Bradshaw, an enthusiastic horsewoman. "I smoke Camels because they are the only cigarette I've ever found that is mild and pleasing to your throat, and that has at the same time a delightful rich, full flavor."

HEALTHY NERVES! "I've smoked Camels for fourteen years, without a sign of upset nerves," says Bill Horn, former Gold Cup winner and outstanding figure in American motorboat racing for 1934. "I like Camels and they like me!"

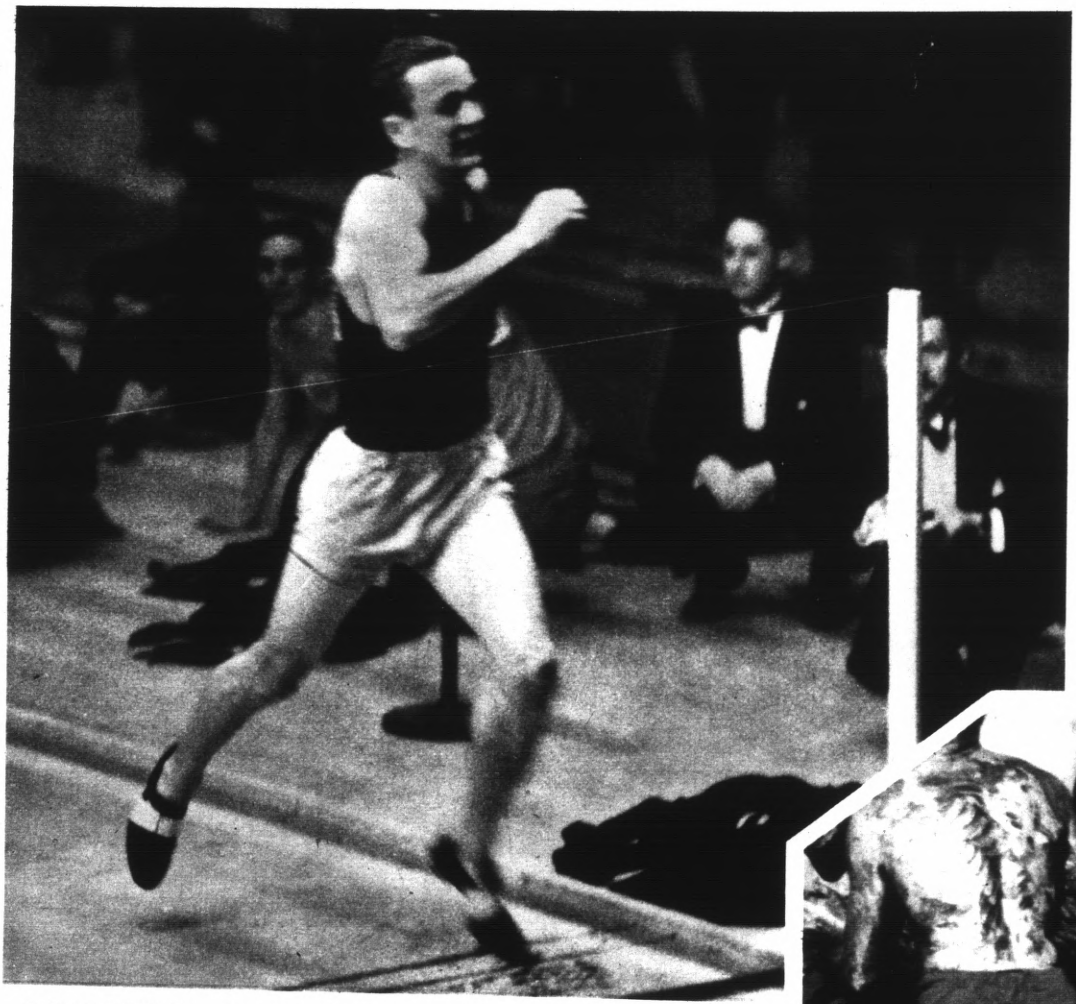


ENERGY! "As a master builder, I have learned that any work requiring 'push' and 'pep' just naturally calls for Camels," comments Frazier Forman Peters. "Camels always give me new energy and enthusiasm when I'm feeling tired and listless."

FLAVOR! "It's been thrilling to have a part in the vast enterprise of building Boulder Dam," says Erwin Jones, Boulder Dam engineer. "Plenty of strain. Many long hours of exhausting work—that's the lot of an engineer on this job! Most of us here at Boulder smoke Camels. Man, what a swell taste Camels have! Mild, cool, and mellow! Camels have a flavor that can't be beat. You can tell they are made from choice tobaccos, too, because they don't get 'flat' or tiresome in taste when you smoke a lot."



VALUE! "I've visited Winston-Salem—seen with my own eyes how Camels are manufactured," says Charley Belden, of Pitchfork, Wyoming. "They are made from costlier tobaccos. No wonder Camels have such a rich, cool flavor—such mildness!"



LONE RUNNER » Gene Venzke, University of Pennsylvania (Philadelphia), was so far ahead of the rest of the field in the Intercollegiate 4-A meet 1,500-meter run that they just didn't get into the picture. Time: 3:57.6. INTERNATIONAL PHOTO

A New Contest for Collegiate Digest Readers

The Picture of the Week

Each week Collegiate Digest will feature one picture that its editors believe to be outstanding from the standpoint of photography, composition, subject, and the story it tells. Still life as well as action photos will be eligible for the contest—and there are no subject restrictions beyond those of libel and decency.

Five dollars will be paid to the winner of each week's contest. The editors reserve the right to use any photo submitted in Collegiate Digest at their regular rate of one dollar—payment to be made upon publication.

RULES

1. Each entry must be made by an amateur photographer who is now a member of the faculty or student body of a college or university.
2. The name, address, and college of each contestant, together with any information about the photograph, must be printed on the back of each photo submitted. No limitation is made upon the number of entries each contestant may submit, nor upon the size of the photographs submitted.
3. No pictures will be returned unless accompanied by return postage.
4. Address all entries to: Picture of the Week, COLLEGIATE DIGEST, P. O. Box 472, Madison, Wis.

Enter this New Contest Now—Win A Five-Dollar Prize.

NIGHT WEAR » One must have a bathrobe, but it needn't fit like a squaw's blanket as the model at the left proves. It is in a light weight tweed, and is a model of comfort.
